

Membership of The Centre for Volunteering provides you with the following benefits:

Volunteer Recruitment Support and Role Promotion

- Listing and updating volunteer roles on the national online volunteering recruitment platform.
- Support to compose and tailor volunteer role descriptions and advertisements.
- The unique opportunity to have skilled volunteer roles advertised in the Sydney Morning Herald Help Desk.
- Candidate screening for selected roles.
- Opportunities to promote Members' volunteer roles and events via Centre communication channels.

Personalised Advice and Support

Receive tailored one-on-one advice and support on volunteer management related issues and challenges, including review of policy documents, volunteer onboarding and retention.

National Standards for Volunteer Involvement Consultation

Undertake a free consultation to learn where your organisation sits with achieving the Standards, where you may have gaps and how we can support you.

Continuing Professional Development Program

Participate in professional development throughout the year and gain CPD points. Have your skills and professionalism recognised through certification as a Professional Leader of Volunteers.

Discount on Professional Development

Discounted fees on applicable workshops, and Accredited Training courses through the National School of Volunteer Management (RTO code 90031).

Access to Pro Bono Legal Services from Hall & Wilcox

Hall & Wilcox offer specialist legal advice to eligible member organisations through their Pro Bono legal department. Conditions apply.

Discount on State Conference Registration

Discounted registration for the state conference. The Volunteering NSW State Conference showcases a variety of sector experts, handpicked to inform and inspire the volunteering sector.

Use of Membership Badge

Members will be provided with a membership e-badge for their use, indicating their organisation is a valued member of the Peak Body for Volunteering.

Promotion of Your Organisation

The work of your organisation is promoted through our Meet the Members spotlight, and shared via The Centre's communications channels.

Mentoring Program

Become or receive a mentor to support your professional practice.

Voting Rights

As a financial member of The Centre, you are entitled to nominate fellow members as Non-Executive Directors of the Board and to vote at our Annual General Meeting.

Member Social Events

We host annual events for our members to meet, network, share knowledge and experiences, and build all-important relationships with other Volunteer Managers and Leaders.

About Our Membership

The Centre for Volunteering is the peak body for volunteering in NSW. We promote and support volunteering and community participation.

The Centre for Volunteering includes Volunteering NSW, a state-wide volunteer referral service, and the National School of Volunteer Management (RTO code 90031), a registered training organisation providing professional development and nationally accredited volunteering qualifications.

The Centre for Volunteering is a not-for-profit organisation with over 50 years' history.

We provide leadership on volunteering issues and connect people and organisations to enrich the community through advocacy, volunteer referral, volunteer recognition, training, resource development, as well as information and education services.

We work for the volunteering sector and volunteer involving organisations, to enhance volunteering, to benefit individual volunteers, and to build strong resilient connected communities through volunteering.

The Centre for Volunteering

Level 3, 40 Gloucester Street, Sydney NSW 2000, T: 02 9261 3600

E: membership@volunteering.com.au | W: volunteering.com.au

© The Centre for Volunteering (NSW), 2026

The Centre for Volunteering acknowledges and pays respect to the Traditional Custodians and Elders of this nation and the continuation of cultural, spiritual, and educational practices of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.